the gibson hotel

We do weddings. We do celebrations. In fact, at the gibson, we do great Do's.

Because this isn't your everyday hotel. A stay here will stay with you. And if you aspire to a day as individual as you, you're holding the answer.

Lux but accessible. Cool but personal. It's uniquely urban and crash-out comfortable. So you and all your guests can get on with the crucial business at hand: having a great time.

We do surprise and warmth and cutting-edge and fun. We party with style. There's a buzz and a look to the gibson drawn from music and fashion and film and creativity. Stuff we love. Find it in the art and architecture, the location and the vibe.

And we do detail. Because we know that your big day comes down to a thousand small things. How to turn what-ifs into no probs. Everything from the backdrop for your photo shoots to hip spaces to make your party fly to the delicious menus you can design.

It's all about you, you, you.

And as you're looking to celebrate your wedding your way, we're here to do that too.

hello

we do.....
planning

But our wedding planning isn't about telling what you can't do, it's about being fresh and original. It's about inspiring and exciting. TBH we get off on this sort of thing. Making your day, makes ours.

See, the difference at the gibson starts with the people. These are fun-loving, party-planning, event-making gurus. Seriously. Fun needs experts.

Ours are hands-on and gloves off to make your celebration everything you ever imagined. Want to arrive by Harley? Fab. Your theme is 90s TV? Bring it on. How about pink lemonades served from our peewee van as everyone pitches up? Or build you own burger to keep it casual.

With the 3 Arena right on our door step, you can imagine we know how to party. How to make moments you'll remember.

do be do be do

we do.....
well connected

We do easy. Close. Fast. Central.

At the pulse of Dublin's cultural and architectural revival, with city's Liffey heartbeat rising and falling just across from us, the gibson hotel makes the toing and froing of family and friends from all quarters a cinch. Think hub.

The airport's only a can't-believe-we're-there-already 10 minutes away thanks to the Port Tunnel. The M50's even closer. While Dublin's light rail tram, the Luas, does Connolly Station from outside our door in a couple of stops.

So whether its mates jetting in from afar, the in-laws in town for the weekend – or you simply like the idea of blowing in post-honeymoon for the ultimate afters party, the gibson hotel makes a mockery of distance.

The world's just got smaller.

Because we do.....
access all areas

we do...
spaces

Not the final frontier type-space. More like spaces to make your own.

Fabulous party spaces. Cool hip spaces. Intimate nooky spaces. Like our stratocaster suite. Where up to 200 guests can dine in splendid luxury. Or our striking coda restaurant where your inner entourage can be entertained in royal fashion. If you like that sort of thing.

Or perhaps the exclusive resident's bar is more your scene. Tall cocktails. A champagne reception. Perhaps tempting canapés and morsels of yumminess while the energy builds.

And, do we not do photogenic? The gibson won't upstage the bride, but it will give you backdrops and inspirational settings, art works and interior details like something you'd only see in a movie.

Or if you're considering celebrating a civil ceremony or a having partnership blessing, one of our private suites taking up to 50 guests will seem purpose-made. Refined, spacious, discreetly elegant. While our wedding co-ordinators can help you shape every nuance.

One of our truly best kept secrets is our hidden outdoor courtyard. designed with towering bamboos and water features. guests can sit outside and enjoy the calm, zen atmosphere.

do the look of love

Because you need a haven too. An escape. An oasis of calmness and indulgence. So we offer newlyweds a chic junior suite. King-size beds to kick back in. Private balconies. Light-filled and designer-decorated.

Did we mention breakfast in bed and a lazy late check-out?

All our 252 guestrooms whisper luxury, from our oh-so-comfortable family rooms to our gibson suite. It's all in the detail. The little touches. Sensual organic toiletries. Sharp floating shelves and subtle ambient lighting. High tech flat-screens and lightning-fast Wi-Fi.

Make the gibson your playground. Work out in our cutting-edge gym. Unwind in the sauna and steam room. Sink into a copper Japanese bath on the terrace and think: damn, life is great.

We want you chilling out as soon as you check in. Like a home from home. But only if your home belongs in the dreamy pages of a cool, contemporary interiors magazine.

Like your mother told you. Never make do with less than the best.
